

Clonbur Writers Weekend

22 - 24 July 2022

Wine & Cheese Reception • Workshops • Readings • Contests • Plein-Air Writing • Community

Tickets and Weekend Programme:

www.clonburwritersweekend2022.eventbrite.ie

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

KATIE OLIVER

Fiction: The Uncanny in Nature

A generative workshop focused upon exploring the strange, mysterious and unsettling elements of the natural world. For writers of all levels.

ANNE WALSH DONNELLY

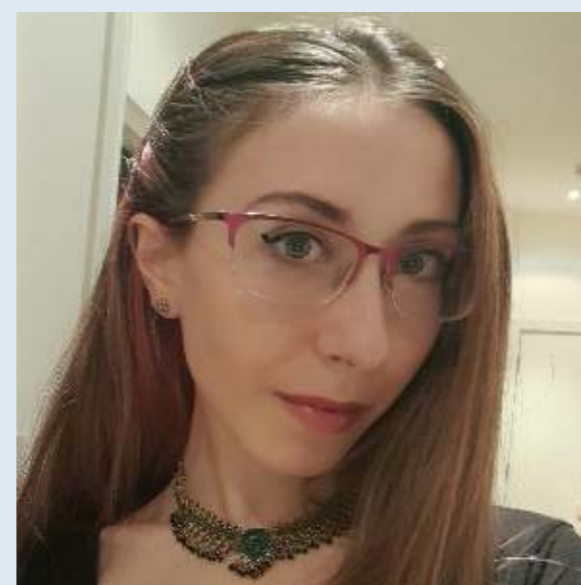

Reading from her recent works

Poems that are sometimes visceral and often humorous. She ultimately shows how meaningful life can become after a period of darkness and how transformative those experiences can be.

ATTRACTA FAHY

Reading from her recent works including Dinner In The Fields, published by Fly On The Wall press. Heavily influenced by Fahy's work as a psychotherapist, her farming background, and her close affinity with nature and her children.

ISABELLE KENYON

For emerging writers - mentoring and development opportunities

In this talk we will discuss the options available for fiction writers (across all genres) for development of their work, to elevate the confidence and craft of emerging writers.

-----And -----

Approaching a publisher

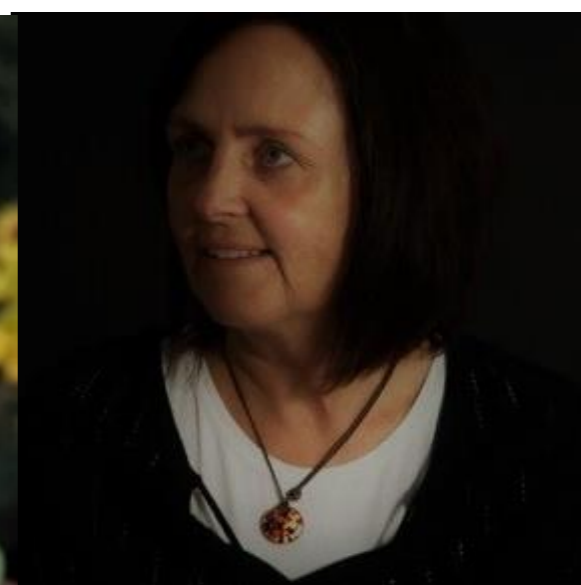

Best practise: how to find the right publisher for your work; establishing a track record; cover letter tips and presentation of your work and Unique Selling Points.

SREE SEN

Poetry (Un)Common: Inspirations from everyday to the extraordinary

This workshop welcomes writers of all levels. We will explore the world around us, finding inspiration in the extraordinary of everyday

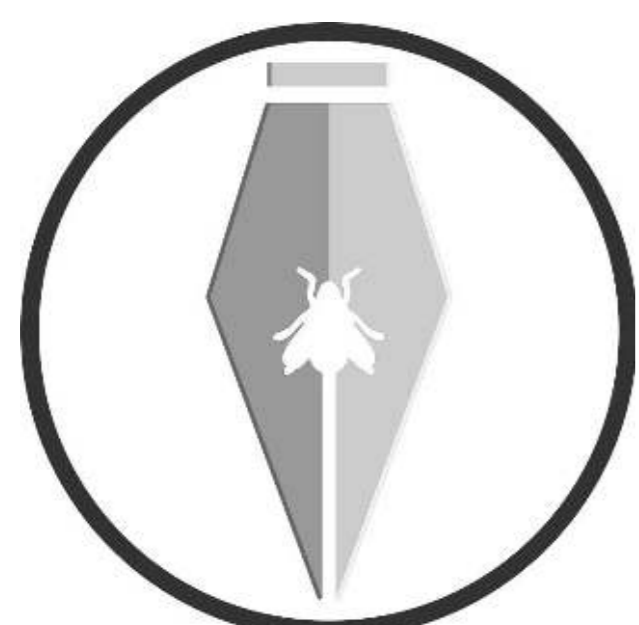

MAEVE MCKENNA

COLIN DARDIS

Writing and mental health, based on the CHIME model connectedness, hope, identity, meaning, and empowerment.

Fly On the Wall Press

www.flyonthewallpress.co.uk

ALL SAINTS HERITAGE CENTRE

R300 An Fháirche Clonbur

Co Galway F12 H9R2

info: AllSaintsClonbur@gmail.com